Civilian Relief.

The ladies of the Home Section Committee met in the office of the Civilian Relief Department, on Friday afternoon at 3:30. Present were: Mesdames John T. Bennett, Nancy P. Leak, L. D. McPhail, B. R. Gasque, Frank W. Leak and W. N. Everett, the latter a new member.

Mr. B. T. Payne, the chairman, stated the object of those round table meetings was simply to keep in touch with each other in the work, make suggestions, consult as to the best means of getting in touch with the families of the "fighting men" &c.

A letter from the division manager, Mr. E. R. Black, was read, impressing on all the Chapters of the Southern Division the importance of trained service for the work. The development of Home Service.

A report on a tuberculosis discharge case was brought in by Mrs. B. R. Gasque and Mrs. F. W. Leak, which was full and complete, and the chairman was enthusiastic over sending it in to headquarters as the first and model report from this chapter.

The committee thought it would be well to organize a "Motor Corps" among the young ladies of Rockingham, who drive their own cars. This was decided on, provided the services of a young lady teacher of the High School will assist in organizing the circle, she having taken the course during the summer.

Mrs. L. D. McPhail is to investigate a case, and make a report at next meeting. Mrs. Nancy P. Leak also has a family to visit and investigate.

The meeting adjourned to meet in the Home Section Department next Friday afternoon at 3:30.

Sparks Circus.

Sparks circus, as can be seen by the page announcement in this issue, will exhibit in Rockingham Saturday, October 5th.

The coming of a circus always delights both old and young, and in Sparks does the mind especially like to dwell. For many years, from a dog and pony show at the outset, the aggregation has visited this section. The small show of years ago has developed into a circus now of two rings and a central platform. Six elephants are carried, besides camels, lions, tigers and other wild animals. In the outfit is a baby camel, born in winter quarters at Salisbury.

Charles Sparks is manager of the circus; he is a brother of the founder, who died several years ago.

The tents will be pitched at the Fair Grounds. The street parade will be held at 11 o'clock, and the performances will begin at 2:15 in the afternoon, with a night show at 8:15.

Mrs. E. G. Scott is now recovering, at Leaksville, from an attack of influenza, suffered since last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. King and child have also had it.
